Dear Fellow Columbian,

The Columbia Alumni Association—a free, no RSVP-required association of all University alumni—keeps you connected to the intellectual and social network of Columbia University. Our Travel Study program is a key part of that. Featuring Columbia and peer institution faculty guides, specially chosen destinations and accommodations, and inquisitive alumni travelers, the Travel Study program is your ticket to a fresh experience of Columbia’s treasures.

We invite you to experience Alaska’s natural wonders on a 10-day exploration of the state’s rugged coasts, temperate rainforests, and rolling inland tundra. Follow expert local guides as they lead hiking, kayak and canoe excursions through the wilds, or simply relax, sit and soak in the wildlife-rich scenery. This unique program is limited to 16 guests, allowing intimate access to Alaska’s wilderness and a more personal experience in the far north.

Columbia’s intellectual and social connections have never been more relevant than today. Join us in explorations and events this season—and stay connected.

Sincerely,

Donna H. MacPhee ’89CC
Vice President for Alumni Relations
President, Columbia Alumni Association

June and July are some of the very best months to travel in Alaska! We’ve selected this time of season for our tour based on the spectacular highlights available during Alaska’s midsummer:

• Witnessing wildlife—like grizzlies, moose and wolves—as they introduce their young to Alaska’s summer habitat. June is an ideal time to see bear cubs, calves and pups explore new terrain.

• Migrating birds overhead, including aerobatic Arctic Terns and stunning Sandhill Cranes.

• The emergence of Alaska’s beautiful wildflowers, such as lupine and fireweed.

• And lastly, extended daylight hours (up to 18 hours) allow us to make the most out of our Alaska journeys each day!
We invite you to explore some of our favorite places in the Last Frontier on this comprehensive Alaska journey:

Day 1, June 27
Home / Fairbanks, Alaska
Welcome to the 49th State! Start your trip in Alaska’s largest northern city, Fairbanks. Visit the Museum of the North on a special tour to learn more about Alaska’s unique cultural and natural history. After tonight’s welcome dinner, we’ll visit the famous Alaska Pipeline.
Overnight at Pike’s Waterfront Lodge. (D)

Day 2, June 28
Denali National Park
Ride the historic Alaska Railroad to Denali National Park. This afternoon, board a private bus for a narrated Denali wildlife drive. Watch for caribou, moose, Dall sheep, grizzly bears, resident and migratory birds, and weather permitting, the tallest peak in North America, Denali (Mt. McKinley). Settle into your cozy cabin accommodations at the Kantishna Roadhouse, in the heart of the park.
Overnight at Kantishna Roadhouse. (B, L, D)

Day 3, June 29
Denali National Park
Photograph the stunning landscapes of tundra, glacier-clad peaks and tundra ponds; pan for gold at a real claim; choose your hiking adventure or take a mountain bike ride before dinner—all at the pace you desire. Enjoy evening presentations in the main lodge or relax at Smoky Joe’s Saloon. Overnight at Kantishna Roadhouse. (B, L, D)

Day 4, June 30
Anchorage
Watch for more wildlife along Denali’s park road. Enjoy a short hike en route to Anchorage. Tonight, stroll the city’s downtown area shops and art galleries under the Midnight Sun.
Overnight in Anchorage. (B, L, D)

Day 5, July 1
Kenai Fjords National Park
From the seacoast town of Seward, board a small ship bound for Kenai Fjords National Park—home to an array of glaciers and wildlife such as whales, Steller sea lions, sea otters, puffins and more! A half-day marine wildlife cruise allows us ample time to explore the rugged coastlines. Enjoy lunch in front of a tidewater glacier before arriving at our exclusive lodge destination: Kenai Fjords Glacier lodge. Nested in a protected tidal lagoon area, the lodge offers stunning glacier and mountain views, as well as miles of pristine beachfront for combing.
Overnight at Kenai Fjords Glacier Lodge. (B, L, D)

Day 6, July 2
Kenai Fjords National Park
Choose from an array of guided activities in this immaculate setting: guided kayaking or canoeing tours of the protected Pederson Lagoon area, short explorations and nature strolls or relaxing in a rocking chair with glacier views. Evening presentations on Alaska natural and cultural history offer enlightenment and perspective.
Overnight at Kenai Fjords Glacier Lodge. (B, L, D)

Day 7, July 3
Kenai Fjords National Park / Anchorage
A return wildlife cruise will bring us to Seward, where we’ll board the historic Alaska Railroad for comfortable rail travel back to Anchorage, through Alaska’s backcountry. Take photographs from the train’s various outdoor viewing platforms and breathe in the fresh Alaska air. Enjoy a festive farewell dinner onboard.
Overnight in Anchorage. (B, L, D)

Day 8, July 4
Anchorage / Home
After breakfast, you’ll be transferred to the airport for return flights home, or you may choose to explore Anchorage on your own.
Courtesy airport shuttles from your hotel will be available throughout the day. (B)
