FROM CANADA’S MARITIME PROVINCES TO THE GREAT LAKES

A Unique Cruise Odyssey Exploring North America’s Treasures

ABOARD THE ALL-SUITE, 50-CABIN CLELIA II

June 7 - 26, 2010

Dear Fellow Columbian,

The Columbia Alumni Association—the free, no RSVP-required association of all University alumni—keeps you connected to the intellectual and social network of Columbia University. As a key part of that mission, the Travel Study program is your summer ticket to a fresh experience with Columbia and our vibrant alumni community. Join fellow graduates, family, and friends in June as we navigate the rivers and inlets of eastern Canada. A voyage of exceptional value, our Maritime Provinces cruise will guide you through one of North America’s treasures, the Great Lakes.

Steeped in grandeur, the Lakes and the coast offer a glimpse both into Canada’s natural beauty, and its Scottish and English heritage, beautifully preserved in the towns of Breton and Prince Edward Islands. Sailing aboard the elegant Clelia II, which offers all-suite accommodations for just 100 guests, you’ll enjoy vistas of lighthouses, graceful Victorian villages, the locks of historic seaways, and learn how the sweet waters of the Great Lakes drove North American industry. After cruising down the St. Lawrence River to cosmopolitan Montreal, during on-shore trips, you’ll have the chance to stroll down Quebec City’s cobblestone streets, take in Niagara Falls, or visit the historic George Eastman House and its International Museum of Photography.

With a range of guest speakers— including the nation’s top personal finance commentator, Jane Bryant Quinn—this educational program is ideal if you’re interested in a trip that encompasses the pleasures of a grand voyage without venturing too far from home. With 2-for-1 pricing on every suite, and no single supplement, this trip is also one of the best travel values for a luxury small-ship cruise. Columbia’s intellectual and social connections have never been more relevant than today, so do join us this summer with a group of fellow alumni travelers to experience a unique itinerary created for the CAA Travel Study Program.

Sincerely,

Donna H. MacPhee ’89CC
Vice President for Alumni Relations
President, Columbia Alumni Association

GUEST LECTURERS

Onboard June 7-19

JANE BRYANT QUINN is the nation’s leading commentator on personal finance, with books and columns read and trusted by millions. Her career includes one of the country’s most successful syndicated newspaper columns, as well as a distinguished career in television. She worked ten years for CBS News, first on the CBS Morning News, then on The Evening News with Dan Rather. A frequent speaker and panelist, Jane is a spokesperson to all generations on how to handle their money in challenging times.

RIC EDELMAN has been named one of the nation’s top financial advisors by Barron’s for five consecutive years. He is the best-selling author of seven books, including The Lies about Money and his latest, Rescue Your Money: Your Personal Investment Recovery Plan. Each week, Ric broadcasts his radio show on ABC Radio. On this cruise, Ric will address investment issues in the current economic climate with a focus on long-term care and estate planning.

Onboard June 7-26

JOSEPH WOOD, lecturer for the American Geographical Society, is a cultural geographer whose scholarship and teaching focus on the North American cultural landscape. He is currently a Professor of Public Affairs and Provost at the University of Baltimore. Wood is the author of The New England Village, and in 2006 he served as lecturer on a transcontinental rail trip across Canada. His ancestors were United Empire Loyalists who settled along the upper St. Lawrence after the American Revolution, and he has sailed as a deckhand on the long ships that ply the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence Seaway.
