A Family Learning
Adventure in the Greek Islands and the Ancient Mediterranean

Aboard the All-Suite,
114-Guest Corinthian II

June 20 - July 2, 2006
Guest Lecturers

Christopher A. Faraone is The Frank Curtis Springer and Gertrude Melcher Springer Professor in the Humanities at the University of Chicago. A member and former chair of the Department of Classics, he is co-editor of Masks of Dionysus and author of Talismans and Trojan Horses: Guardian Statues in Ancient Greek Myth and Ritual and Ancient Greek Love Magic. He teaches and writes primarily about Greek poetry and mythology and regularly teaches in the core curriculum, where he serves as the director of the Greek Thought and Literature sequence.

Dorothy Wallace is Professor of Mathematics at Dartmouth College. She received her B.S. from Yale University and her Ph.D. from the University of California at San Diego. She works primarily in number theory, although she has also published papers in applied mathematics and mathematics education as well. Her work with the Math Across the Curriculum project at Dartmouth included the development of several interdisciplinary courses in mathematics and art and literature. During the trip, Professor Wallace will give three presentations: Pythagoras in Greece and Italy; Evaluating the Explosion that destroyed Santorini; and Archimedes’ defense of Syracuse.

Mariana Carpanisan is former Assistant Curator with the Cleveland Museum of Art, where she organized exhibitions, planned educational programs, and developed an interdisciplinary curriculum of art and music for organizations such as the Cleveland Orchestra, the Cleveland Institute of Music, and the Toronto Symphony. Mariana has taught at Case Western Reserve in Cleveland and is currently an adjunct professor at Georgetown University in Washington, DC. In addition to her work as an art history consultant and art critic, she conducts seminars and lectures for the Smithsonian Resident Associate Program.

“We just got back from the Gods and Heroes trip and wanted to let you know we had an absolutely fabulous time. Our accommodations were just terrific—and our thanks to you—just wanted to let you know how much we appreciated your help and what a success it was for us. We hope to travel with you again in the future at some point.”

2005 Voyage to the Lands of Gods and Heroes Traveler
Dear Columbian,

This summer embark on a voyage of discovery that will make history come alive for the whole family. Aboard the private yacht Corinthian II, cruise the Mediterranean, where ancient cities, idyllic islands, myth, and history are intertwined. What better way to awaken young minds to the wonders of Classical antiquity than to travel to Athens, the legendary Greek Islands, and Rome. This is a prime itinerary to enlighten the senses and awaken the imagination of your children or grandchildren; it is also the perfect moment to do so—Athens, following the 2004 Olympics, has been transformed into a city capturing the best of the ancient and modern worlds.

Our journey begins in Athens, the birthplace of Western Civilization. We will travel to the ancient marvels of Epidaurus and Mycenae, and see the Bronze Age ruins of Akrotiri on the cliffs of Santorini. Discover Rhodes, whose fortified town of Rhodes is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of Europe's best-preserved medieval cities, and become enchanted by the Minoan Palace of Knossos in Crete. Visit ancient Olympia before cruising to Sicily, where you will see massive Mount Etna from Taormina's ancient theater. Arriving in mainland Italy, your children will awe at the ruins of Pompeii and Herculaneum. We conclude our journey in Rome, the Eternal City of Classical empire and Baroque grandeur.

Exploring this remarkable region as a family will create lasting memories of shared learning and discovery. Grandparents, parents, and children will learn about the history, literature, mythology, and culture of Greece and Rome, all while walking among the ruins of those civilizations. Experienced youth education counselors will lead groups of similarly aged children in the Young Explorers Program, a series of educational and recreational activities developed to enhance their appreciation of the sites we visit. Children will discover the great heroes of classical mythology and come to appreciate how archaeologists have pieced together our understanding of the past. They will also have the opportunity to compete in their own mock Olympics on the actual grounds of the original Games in Olympia. And at night, they will go on deck for stargazing to hear ancient tales about the origins of the constellations and to discover how sailors navigated by the stars.

Our cruise is an outdoor classroom for children and adults alike. Accompanying us on our voyage will be expert guests lecturers who will enrich the program with their knowledge of the ancient world.

The delightful Corinthian II, features 57 suites, each facing outside for sea views, as well as open, inviting public areas and fine dining. With gracious comforts, Corinthian II fosters a friendly and intimate ambience. We will be joined by alumni from Dartmouth College, Duke University, and the University of Chicago.

If you have ever dreamed of introducing your children or grandchildren to the wonders of classical antiquity and the adventure of sailing to foreign lands, here is the opportunity to do so. We hope you will join us next summer on this enriching Voyage to the Lands of Gods and Heroes.

Sincerely,

Eric J. Furda
Vice President for Alumni Relations

Itinerary

Tuesday, June 20, 2006
USA
Depart from the United States on a flight to Athens, Greece.

Wednesday, June 21
ATHENS, GREECE
Arrive in Athens and transfer to the Divani Apollon Palace Hotel. The remainder of the day is at leisure. (D)

Thursday, June 22
ATHENS
This morning, children participate in Young Explorers activities, and adults attend a lecture. In the afternoon, adults and children travel to Athens, a city unparalleled in its influence on Western civilization. Visit the Acropolis, the heart of ancient Athens, to see the ruins of the majestic Parthenon and the Erechtheion, also known as the Portico of the Maidens. Also visit the Acropolis Museum. Tonight, dine at a local taverna in the Plaka neighborhood. (B, L, D)

Friday, June 23
ATHENS | SOUNION | ATHENS
In the morning, visit the National Archaeological Museum, which exhibits Greece’s finest collection of antiquities. Continue to the 11th-century Kessariani Monastery, which features fine Greek Orthodox wall paintings. Alternatively, Young Explorers tour the Foundation of the Hellenic World, which presents a virtual-reality experience of ancient Olympia, as well as exhibits on ancient Greek contributions to mathematics and science. In the late afternoon, travel to Cape Sounion and its Temple of Poseidon, a dazzling landmark overlooking the sea. After a visit, enjoy a sunset and dinner at a local taverna, overlooking the sea. (B, L, D)

Saturday, June 24
ATHENS | MYCENAE | EPIDAURUS | NAUPLION | EMBARK
Depart for Mycenae, the legendary city of Agamemnon, which Homer described as “rich in gold.” After entering through the Lion Gate, see the remains of the palace, the royal tombs, and the defensive walls. Also visit the new Archaeological Museum and the Treasury of Atreus, a huge stone tholos (or beehive tomb), built about 1300 B.C. In the afternoon, continue to Epidaurus, the ancient shrine of Asklepios, god of medicine. Its ruins are dominated by the fourth-century theater, one of the best-preserved Classical buildings in Greece. After strolling the narrow streets of charming Nauplion, embark on Corinthian II and set sail. (B, L, D)

Sunday, June 25
SANTORINI
Corinthian II cruises into the flooded volcanic crater that forms the bay of Santorini. In the second millennium B.C., volcanic eruptions shrouded the island in a blanket of pumice and ash, preserving many of the buildings in the town of Akrotiri, which centuries ago was inhabited by a sophisticated Bronze Age society. The houses here still contain pottery and furnishings left as they were abandoned, and the streets remain much as they were 3,600 years ago. A morning excursion for adults leads to the excavations at Akrotiri, followed by a visit to the Museum of Prehistoric Thera. Meanwhile, Young Explorers embark their own private sailboat for an unforgettable morning excursion to the volcano of Nea Kameni, the island lying in the center of Santorini’s caldera. After hiking to the top of the volcano for spectacular views, Young Explorers circumnavigate the island while learn-
Taormina, Sicily

ing about the area’s geology, and culminate their morning adventure with an ascent of the caldera wall by donkey.
Adults and children reunite for lunch and for free time to explore the town of

Monday, June 26
RHODES | LINDOS | RHODES
Corinthian II calls at Rhodes, founded in 408 B.C., on the island of the same name. It was here during the 14th centuyear the Crusader Knights of St. John left their architectural mark. See the Street of the Knights; visit the Palace of the Grand Master; and stroll through the Archaeological Museum.
After lunch, drive to Lindos and meander through the cobblestoned streets either on a walking tour or by donkey.
Then ascend to the acropolis, built on a cliff 400 feet above the sea. Enjoy time at leisure to relax in the town of Lindos or swim on its white-sand beach
before returning to Rhodes. (B, L, D)

Tuesday, June 27
HERAKLION | KNOSSOS | Crete
This morning arrive in Heraklion, Crete’s main port, where an excursion leads to one of the finest achievements of Minoan civilization—the partially reconstructed Palace at Knossos. The palace contains underground passageways, where, legend has it, the Minotaur stalked his domain. Knossos’ corridors, stairways, and chambers are decorated with frescoes illustrating life as it was 4,000 years ago. Continue to the Heraklion Museum, where treasures from Knossos and other Cretan sites are on display. In the afternoon, take a refreshing plunge off the ship’s stern in the waters of Dia Island
(weather permitting). (B, L, D)

Wednesday, June 28
KATAKOLON | OLYMPIA | KATAKOLON
From Katakolon, an excursion leads to Olympia, an ancient sanctuary dedicated to Zeus, father of the gods. Olympia is renowned as the birthplace of the Olympics and is one of four sites where the Panhellenic games were held. Tour the sacred area, including the temples of Hera and Zeus, the Council House, the Treasuries, and the stadium, where Young Explorers may run in the footsteps of ancient Olympians. Sail in the afternoon for Italy. (B, L, D)

Thursday, June 29
NAXOS BAY | TAORMINA,
SICILY, ITALY
After a morning at sea, anchor in Naxos Bay in the shadow of Taormina.
Taormina offers a breathtaking view
out to sea and the cone of Mount Etna.
A Greek colony was founded here in the eighth century B.C. and prospered throughout the Hellenistic and Roman periods. Visit the Greek Theater, which offers dramatic views of Etna and the Sicilian coastline, and enjoy time at leisure to admire Taormina’s architecture and gardens. Or, enjoy a relaxing afternoon on the beautiful beaches of Naxos Bay. In the early evening, Corinthian II navigates the Strait of Messina. (B, L, D)

Friday, June 30
SORRENTO | POMPEII | HERCULANEUM | SORRENTO
From Sorrento, an excursion leads to Pompeii, the Roman city both destroyed and preserved by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 A.D. Tour highlights include the Forum; the Temples of Apollo and Jupiter; and the Stabian Baths, the best preserved and most complete in Pompeii. After lunch, continue to Herculaneum. Similarly affected by the eruption of 79 A.D., many houses here have been preserved, and the gardens have been replanted to recreate what the environment was like over 1,900
years ago. (B, L, D)

Saturday, July 1
ANZIO | ROME | ANZIO
From a collection of huts on the banks of the Tiber, Rome became Empress of the World. From Anzio travel to Rome and see the Colosseum, the vast elliptical amphitheatre dating from 70 A.D.;
the Pantheon, the most perfectly preserved ancient temple in Rome; and the Forum, the center of Imperial Rome for nearly 500 years. After lunch at a local restaurant, enjoy time at leisure to explore the eternal city. Return to the ship in Anzio for one final night
onboard. (B, L, D)

Sunday, July 2
ANZIO | DISEMBARK | USA
Disembark from Corinthian II in Anzio and transfer to the airport in Rome. (B)
Corinthian II — The ideal combination of cruise ship grandeur and small-ship intimacy

Spacious Suites
The five-star deluxe Corinthian II is an all-suite mega-yacht accommodating no more than 114 guests. Originally built in Italy in 1992, Corinthian II was refurnished and redecorated in 2005 specifically to create an atmosphere of effortless elegance and easy conviviality. All 57 outside-facing suites are a minimum of 225 square feet, appointed in rich wood tones with two twin-size or one queen-size bed, sitting area, TV, mini-refrigerator, safe, and a marble-appointed bathroom with fine toiletries. Several suites include private balconies accessible via sliding-glass doors. Fresh flowers and a bowl of fruit provide a bright and comforting touch in each guest’s suite.

Fine Dining
Superb Continental cuisine is created by Corinthian II’s European chefs and served either in the stately restaurant or al fresco on the wide sun deck, which is specially equipped for outdoor dining service. Select regional wines are complimentary with lunch and dinner. Fresh ingredients are chosen locally at many ports of call. All meals are served at one, unassigned seating; varied seating arrangements assure comfort for all. Corinthian II’s widely praised service equals that of the finest restaurants.

Effortless Elegance Each Day and Night
Returning from excursions, enjoy complimentary refreshments, afternoon tea, and all-day coffee in The Club, a civilized space for relaxation with panoramic windows. Before or after dinner, savor a cocktail while the ship’s pianist plays arrangements ranging from jazz to classical to contemporary. Corinthian II also features a library, Internet center, beauty salon, gym, elevator serving all decks, and a wraparound sun deck with Jacuzzi. The 70 European officers and crew ensure an atmosphere akin to a private club for the length of your voyage.

Responsibility: Please read carefully the following terms and conditions, which constitute the sole, legally enforceable agreements between the passenger and Columbia University, its agent, TSS LLC, and operator, Travel Dynamics International. The passenger is also advised to review his/her separate ticket passage contract with the vessel’s owner/operator, which will constitute the sole, legally enforceable terms of carriage for this tour and is available upon request from Travel Dynamics International. Columbia University, its agent TSS LLC, and operator, Travel Dynamics International act solely as agents for the passenger with respect to all transportation, hotel and other tour arrangements. In that capacity, we exercise all reasonable care possible to ensure the passenger’s safety and satisfaction, but, we neither assume nor bear any responsibility or liability for any injury, death, damage, loss, accident, delay or irregularity arising in connection with the services of any ship, airplane, train, automobile, motor coach, carriage or other conveyance, or the actions of any third-party, involved in carrying the passenger or in affecting these tours. We, Columbia University, our agent TSS LLC, and operator, Travel Dynamics International are not responsible for damages, additional expenses, or any other losses due to cancellation, delay or other changes in air or other services, sickness, weather, strike, war, civil disturbances, acts or threats of terrorism, travel warnings or bans, termination or suspension of war risks or other carrier insurance, quarantine, acts of God or other causes beyond our control. All such losses must be borne by the passenger, and tour rates provide for arrangements only for the time stated. In the event of cancellation, delay or rescheduling mandated by any of the aforesaid causes beyond our control, the passenger shall have the option of accepting in lieu of the original tour such rescheduled tour or other substituted tour(s) as may be offered by us, or else, receiving a refund of as much of such advance tour expenditures as we are able to recover on the passenger’s behalf from carriers, third-party tour vendors, etc., but, we shall not have any obligation or liability to the passenger beyond the foregoing. We reserve the right to make alterations to the tour’s itinerary and to substitute hotels or ships if this is required. We reserve the right to cancel, delay, or reschedule any tour prior to departure, and, so long as this is not due to any of the aforesaid causes beyond our control, the passenger shall be entitled to a full refund of all monies paid to that point if he/she so desires. No refund shall be made for any unused portion of any tour. By forwarding their deposit(s), the passenger certifies that he/she and/or their dependents, minors or others covered thereby do not have any mental, physical or other condition of disability that could create a hazard for them or other passengers. We reserve the right to decline to accept or to decline to retain any person as a member of any tour should such person’s health, condition or actions adversely affect or threaten the welfare or safety of other passengers or impede the tour. Baggage or valuables brought on the tour shall be transported, handled or stored at the passenger’s risk entirely, and, we shall bear no liability or responsibility for any damage or other loss thereto. Resolution of any disputes arising hereunder shall be affected exclusively in the state or federal courts presiding in the City of New York, pursuant to applicable New York law. We cannot guarantee the size of the Columbia Alumni Travel Study group. We reserve the right to substitute study leaders.

Rates: Tour costs are based upon current airfares, tariffs, and currency values. While we do everything possible to maintain the listed prices, they are subject to change. Due to fluctuations in fuel costs, a fuel surcharge may be levied.
