En route from Barcelona to Lisbon, admire four UNESCO World Heritage sites and experience Portugal’s lesser-traveled Algarve region. Call on the enchanting Balearic Island of Mallorca and visit its vibrant capital city, Palma de Mallorca. Explore the colorful, historic city of Valencia and walk through its spectacular La Lonja de la Seda, the city’s UNESCO World Heritage-designated 15th-century former Silk Exchange. Visit the regal city of Granada and tour the magnificent Alhambra Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Enjoy a unique opportunity to cruise into the heart of Seville on Spain’s legendary Guadalquivir River. Stand on Gibraltar’s “Top of the Rock” to see the Pillars of Hercules spanning the scenic Strait of Gibraltar. Experience the spectacular sights that inspired works of art by Gaudi and Picasso, and enjoy the lively beat of flamenco. Onboard lectures will enhance your journey with the history, legends, and contemporary life in these beautiful cities and villages.

The specially chartered LE LYRIAL exemplifies Five-Star, small-ship cruising with elegant accommodations, a carefully crafted itinerary with a specially arranged excursion in each port, the ability to dock in small ports of call inaccessible to larger vessels, and no long lines for tenders and touring. This state-of-the-art small ship features only 110 suites and staterooms with distinctive French sophistication.

SUPERIOR
Our programs are classified in three categories: Value, Superior and Luxury
Flourishing Cultures of Historic Iberia and the Age of Discovery

The inimitable Iberian Peninsula showcases fortified medieval towns and modern cities that retain incredible artistic and architectural treasures from centuries past. Previous exposure to the Greeks and Romans, as well as the diverse Moorish, Jewish and Christian cultures, ushered in great advances in mathematics, medicine, optics, horticulture and philosophy. This blossoming of knowledge and talent was the impetus behind the Golden Age of Discovery, when ships sailed from these shores to the New World. These voyages brought back riches to Iberia, which created great wealth amidst the unique mélange of cultures, giving rise to the art, architecture and distinctly Mediterranean tradition of savoring life in the idyllic seaside cities, towns and villages you will experience.

Barcelona, Spain
The lively quarters of Barcelona’s beautiful Mediterranean metropolis are filled with the artistic wonders of Gaudi, Picasso and Dalí. The city center has the greatest concentration of Gothic architecture in Europe and proudly displays its heritage and roots as a Roman trading port.

Palma de Mallorca, Balearic Islands
Enjoy a scenic drive past the almond groves that are emblematic of Palma to the beautiful estate of Son Marroig, a medieval mansion with amazing panoramic views of azure Mediterranean waters. View the UNESCO World Heritage-designated terraced farms and water mills of Serra de Tramuntana en route to the traditional village of Valldemossa.

Cover photo: Stroll over the blue, white and yellow tiled bridges in Seville’s Plaza de España to see the intricately painted tile alcoves displaying stories about the provinces of Spain.

to visit the famous Carthusian Monastery, a former residence of composer Frédéric Chopin. Here, see one of the composer’s pianos and enjoy a recital of his masterpieces played by a local musician.

In Palma, visit the Gothic 14th-century Bellver Castle, a rare concentric European castle, rising 450 feet above the city. Tour the magnificent sandstone Palma Cathedral, constructed over the course of 300 years starting in 1230 and representing the height of Catalan Gothic-style architecture.

Valencia
Located on the Costa del Azahar (Orange Blossom Coast) of Spain, the sun-kissed city of Valencia was founded as a Roman colony in 138 B.C. amidst a fertile plain of orange groves. Walk along the historic cobblestone streets of colorful Plaza de la Reina in the city center and visit the UNESCO World Heritage-designated La Lonja de la Seda (Silk Exchange), a masterpiece of splendid Gothic architecture built in the 15th century, and the elaborate 13th-century Valencia Cathedral, known for its impressive 167-foot-tall Miguelete Bell Tower.

Granada, Andalusia
Granada, scenically located atop three hills framed by the snow-clad Sierra Nevada mountains, was ruled for 250 years by Nasrid Dynasty monarchs, the last Moorish kingdom in Spain, who left a priceless architectural legacy—the magnificent Alhambra Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Walk through its outer precincts and enjoy a dinner in Granada followed by a specially arranged tour of the palace. Admire the genius of medieval Moorish craftsmen within, and stroll through the beautifully landscaped Generalife Gardens.

Gibraltar, British Overseas Territory
The southernmost tip of the Iberian Peninsula, the Rock of Gibraltar was considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules that marked the boundary of the known world. Drive to the “Top of the Rock,” the 1400-foot-high limestone promontory, to enjoy an expansive view from Europa Point across the strait separating Europe and Africa and visit the Great Siege Tunnels, excavated by

First settled by the Moors in A.D. 711, Gibraltar lies in the shadow of the landmark Rock that shares its name.
Palma Cathedral, “La Seu,” was built over a Moorish temple after King James I of Aragon’s conquest of Mallorca.

Valencia’s Plaza del Ayuntamiento, a historic center, showcases an exceptional range of Spanish architectural styles.

British army engineers in the late 18th century to provide defense for the colony.

Observe up close the amusing antics of Barbary macaques, the only colony of wild monkeys in Europe, and see the impressive geological wonders in St. Michael’s Cave. The afternoon is at leisure to explore pedestrian Casemates Square in Gibraltar’s city center.

Seville, Andalusia, Spain

Cruise into the heart of extraordinary Seville, Andalusia’s lively capital on the Guadalquivir River, with a rare docking in the city’s center. Drive through this historic area, lined with typical Sevillana houses, to see the neoclassical Maestranza Bullring—the largest in Spain—and the riverfront Tower of Gold, a remnant of Seville’s Moorish fortifications. Stroll through delightful Maria Luisa Park and the Plaza de España, built for the Ibero-American Exposition of 1929. Continue through charming Santa Cruz, the old Jewish quarter, a gleaming maze of white houses, flower-filled patios and orange trees lining the checkered stone streets.

Tour the legendary UNESCO World Heritage site of Alcázar, the distinctive 14th-century, Mudéjar-style former residence of Seville’s Moroccan and Spanish rulers and the city’s magnificent cathedral, a classic example of late Gothic architecture and Europe’s second-largest Christian house of worship after St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome. Inside, view the imposing monument to Christopher Columbus, whose remains were transported here in 1902 from Havana, Cuba, and the world’s largest altarpiece, a masterful gilded woodcarving created over the course of 44 years by Flemish craftsman Pierre Dancart. Later, enjoy a traditional flamenco performance on board the ship.

The Algarve, Portugal

Basking on Portugal’s sun-washed southern coast, the historic province of the Algarve was settled in ancient times by the Phoenicians and Romans and later ruled by the Moors. Today, their heritage survives in distinctive architecture and flavorful regional cuisine. Intrepid 15th- and 16th-century Portuguese mariners, including Vasco da Gama, set sail from the Algarve’s shores on voyages of discovery that eventually circled the globe before triumphantly returning to Lisbon.

En route to Lagos, stop to admire Ponta de Piedade, a group of coastal limestone rock formations and cliffs famous for both their size, some as tall as 60 feet, and beauty, their canyon coloring a stunning contrast against the turquoise waters of Lagos Bay. Enjoy views of sea arches, sea caves and the Algarve coast from the lookout point atop the cliffs. Continue on to the former Algarve capital, the port town of Lagos, once the center of trade between Moorish Portugal and Africa. Visit the Baroque Church of St. Anthony, with its intricate gilded carved wood interior, and explore the city at leisure.

Lisbon

Lisbon’s rich cultural heritage is reflected in its well-preserved palaces, magnificent churches and impressive castle.
