Dear Fellow Columbian,

Experience the rich traditions and astonishing beauty of the British Isles and Northern France’s storied coastline during this unforgettable Celtic Lands voyage from June 4 – 14, 2019. Traverse the lands and seas of the ancient and influential Celts, and in commemoration of the historic 75th anniversary of the D-Day Invasion, visit the solemn shores of Normandy with Professor David Eisenhower, grandson of President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

On June 6, 2019, the 75th anniversary of D-Day, visit the D-Day Museum, and Southwick House, Supreme Allied Commander Eisenhower’s battle headquarters. Professor Eisenhower and Allen Packwood, an expert on the British Prime Minister Winston Churchill, will come aboard for a portion of the cruise and will share their unique insights on two of the most influential figures of the 20th century. Spend two days ashore visiting the Normandy beaches, including Omaha Beach and Utah Beach.

Discover Scotland’s Inner Hebridean Islands and admire the austere landscapes of the United Kingdom, including the Scottish Highlands, steeped in local lore and natural splendor. In North Wales, follow in the footsteps of medieval and modern-day princes and enjoy a privately arranged musical performance by the renowned Welsh Maelgwyn Choir. Stroll the rare and exquisite Tresco Gardens in the Scilly Isles, England, and in Dublin, Ireland, view treasures of Celtic heritage and revel in the lively delights of traditional Irish song and dance. While you cruise the waters of the Irish and Celtic Seas and cross the English Channel, enjoy the luxuries of the specially chartered, Five-Star, small ship Le Boréal—featuring only 110 Suites and Staterooms—and explore cities, villages and islands that abound with Celtic heritage.

The Columbia Alumni Association (CAA) is a global network connecting Columbians of all Schools to one another and to the intellectual and social fabric of Columbia University, even after graduation. It links 350,000 alumni through more than 100 Regional Clubs and Shared Interest Groups, online resources and over 200 thought-provoking programs around the world. The CAA Travel Study Program is one of the benefits offered to Columbia alumni and is an opportunity to continue one’s Columbia education through new intellectual, cultural and geographical horizons.

This extraordinary visit to the pivotal D-Day beaches of Normandy—where Allied forces turned the tide of World War II—and the beautiful Celtic Lands of the British Isles is sure to sell out quickly. Please contact the CAA Travel Study Program at 866-325-8664 or travelstudy@Columbia.edu for more details and to reserve your place today.

SUPERIOR
Our programs are classified in three categories: Value, Superior and Luxury

Spread photo: The seaside town of Arromanches overlooks Mulberry “B,” the military code name for an artificial harbor created to land troops and equipment on D-Day.
The ancient Celts’ immeasurable contributions to Europe are rooted in a tradition of art, science and folkloric legend. This tribal civilization spanned two thousand years with a diversified domain extending from the Iberian Peninsula to the Black Sea and from the Mediterranean to the North Sea. Today, they are most associated with the cultural identity and consciousness of Ireland, although their roots run deep in England, Wales, Scotland and northern France—historic territories where traces of their influence remain and where Celtic dialects formed the original languages.

U.S./London, England
Tuesday and Wednesday, June 4 and 5
Depart the U.S. for London. On arrival, check into the deluxe Runnymede on Thames Hotel. Following an afternoon at leisure on Wednesday, return to the hotel for dinner.

London/Portsmouth
Thursday, June 6
Enjoy a scenic transfer from London to Portsmouth and visit the D‑Day Museum and Southwick House, Supreme Allied Commander Dwight D. Eisenhower’s battle headquarters, with an exclusive lunch and lecture in the historic Portsmouth Guildhall.

Embark the Five‑Star Le Boréal and enjoy dinner on the ship this evening. Later on board, Professor David Eisenhower will share captivating personal insights about his grandfather and “Operation Overlord,” the Allies’ code name for the military campaign that launched the D‑Day airborne and amphibious invasion at Normandy.

Caen, France, for Arromanches and Omaha Beach
Friday, June 7
Dock in Caen and travel to Arromanches to view a wraparound short film documenting the D‑Day campaign at the Arromanches 360 Circular Cinema. Continue to Longues‑sur‑Mer, where the coastal German artillery battery remains intact.

After lunch, continue to Omaha Beach, the westernmost shore of the five landing areas of the Normandy invasion. Visit the Omaha Beach D‑Day Museum for a chronological account of the landing retold through an immersive curation of artifacts, vehicles and oral histories.

Nearby Sainte‑Mére‑Èglise, the first French village to be liberated by American forces during World War II, is known for its great historical significance, including the famous story of American soldier John Steele, who caught his parachute on the church steeple and was forced to dangle limply for two hours before being taken as a German prisoner. See Milestone 0, which marks the Road to Freedom’s commencement.

Tresco, Scilly Isles, England
Sunday, June 9
Visit the lush, 19th‑century Tresco Abbey Gardens, weather permitting. Blooming with more than 6000 exotic plant species ranging in origin from Brazil to New Zealand, and built around the ruins of a Benedictine Abbey, this subtropical landscape is often compared to London’s Royal Botanic Garden as a “perennial Kew without the glass.” Meander among spires of indigo viper’s bugloss, broad-leaved tree ferns, flourishing aloes and bright pink South African suikerbos in this surprising, magical haven.

Dublin, Ireland
Monday, June 10
Built astride the River Liffey, Ireland’s historic capital has retained its rich heritage of Georgian architecture. The panoramic tour of the city highlights the landmark St. Patrick’s and Christ Church Cathedrals and grand O’Connell Street, lined with bronze and marble statues of Irish statesmen. Stroll through the stately quadrangles of Trinity College and view the incandescent illuminations of the ninth-century Book of Kells. The afternoon is at leisure to walk along colorful Grafton Street, savor a pint of Guinness in a neighborhood pub or visit the National Gallery of Ireland, one of the best repositories of Celtic treasures in the world.

On board the ship this evening, enjoy specially arranged, traditional Irish music and dance performed by a local band.

Holyhead, Wales
Tuesday, June 11
From Holyhead, transfer across the diminutive Isle of Anglesey and over the Menai Strait to North Wales, cradle of Celtic culture, where Welsh remains the mother tongue.

Visit beautiful Bodnant Garden, one of the finest examples of 19th-century Victorian landscape artistry. Stop in the charming seaside resort town of Llandudno for lunch, followed by a stirring private choir performance of Welsh hymns. Experience the grandeur of the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Caernarfon Castle, an impenetrable 13th-century fortress built by Edward I of England as a defense against the marauding Welsh. Following the tradition of seven centuries of monarchs, Queen Elizabeth II invested the future heir to the British throne, her son Charles, as Prince of Wales at Caernarfon in 1969.

Enjoy views of the beautiful, glacier-sculpted peaks and valleys of the Snowdonia Mountains during your return to the ship.

Isle of Iona, Scotland/Isle of Mull/Tobermory
Wednesday, June 12
Go ashore at the Hebridean Isle of Iona, the birthplace of Christianity in Scotland.
In A.D. 563, the Irish monk Columba founded a monastery here, where scribes would spend their entire lives painstakingly copying and illuminating religious tracts and transcribing ancient Celtic sagas. Iona became the burial place of Scotland’s kings, including Duncan and Macbeth. Stroll through the serene, restored abbey and see the churchyard’s intricate Celtic crosses.

Ferry across the Sound of Iona to the neighboring Isle of Mull, where brightly painted houses are nestled between the hills and the harbor of Tobermory. Visit 13th-century Duart Castle, the ancestral home of the Clan Maclean, and enjoy lunch at the castle.

Later, join Allen Packwood on board the ship as he discusses the complexity of the D-Day operations and Sir Winston Churchill’s role in its undertaking.

Fort William/Scottish Highlands/Oban
Thursday, June 13

The resplendent beauty of the legendary Scottish Highlands is unparalleled in its rich and rugged scenery, which has inspired countless folktales and storytellers with its magnetic and mysterious pull. Enjoy a full day’s journey, beginning in bucolic Glenfinnan.

View the Glenfinnan Viaduct, immortalized by the Hogwarts™ Express in the Harry Potter film series, and see the Glenfinnan Monument, commemorating the Jacobite Highlanders that Bonnie Prince Charlie rallied against King George II in 1745. Stop along the Caledonian Canal at Neptune’s Staircase—the longest staircase lock in Britain.

This afternoon, enjoy a picturesque drive from Fort William to majestic Glencoe, considered Scotland’s most scenic glen, much of which is preserved by the National Trust for Scotland. Travel along castle-dotted shores to Oban to rejoin the ship. This evening, attend the Captain’s Farewell Reception.

Glasgow/U.S.
Friday, June 14

Disembark and continue on the Glasgow and Edinburgh Post-Program Option or transfer to the airport for your return flight to the U.S.

Explore Edward I’s impressive Caernarfon Castle, the mightiest link in his Iron Ring of fortresses across North Wales and where the investiture of Prince Charles of Wales took place in 1969.

Featured Guest Speakers

Dwight David Eisenhower II

Grandson of General and President Dwight D. Eisenhower, David Eisenhower is a noted historian of World War II and the Cold War. His 1986 bestseller, Eisenhower: At War 1943-1945, was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize in history.

Eisenhower is Senior Fellow of the Foreign Policy Research Institute and a Public Policy Fellow at the Annenberg School of Communication and the School of Arts and Sciences at the University of Pennsylvania, where he teaches “Communication and the Presidency.” His lecture will feature:

- Operation Overlord—the concept, planning and personalities behind the D-Day invasion; and
- Triumph and Tragedy—big-picture consequences of the Allied Forces Normandy landings.

Allen Packwood

His lecture will feature:

- Churchill and D-Day—Churchill’s role in the high-risk complexity of the D-Day operations; and
- Churchill and the Two Republics: France and the U.S.—Churchill’s worldview as a leader and how it was influenced by both the United States and France.

Scheduled guest speakers may be altered due to circumstances beyond our control. See Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement.

On June 6, 1944, Allied forces launched the D-Day invasion, landing on the beaches of Normandy.
